A PAIR OF ASSIGNMENTS.

J. L. King & Company Go To The Wall.

CLAIM THEY WILL PAY OUT.

Liabilities And Assets About $20,000

Charles L. Andrews Also Assigns For $800.

There was some stir in business circles here this morning when it was announced that the large tobacco manufacturers J. L. King & Co., had assigned.

The deed of assignment naming John W. King as assignee was filed yesterday though nothing was generally known of the failure until this morning. For a few hours the register's office was kept in a stir by attorneys, creditors and newspaper men who wished to consult the deed of assignment.

The firm is composed of John L. King and G. H. McKinney.

The property conveyed in the deed of assignment is the factory and all its equipment, machinery, fixtures, furniture, tobacco and all outstanding notes due the firm together with the vacant lot between the King factory and Leak factory and a one fourth interest in the Leak factory which J. L. King & Co., own.

PREFERRED CREDITORS.

The preferred creditors are divided into two classes. No creditors were preferred except such as had endorsed the company's paper and which the company felt bound to indemnify and preserve from harm.

First class—A note of $5,000 given to the National Bank, of High Point, on April 24th, 1897 with W. E. Bevill and R. M. Rees as sureties and a $2,500 note given to the same bank with the same sureties on the 24th of July 1897.

Second Class—A note of $2,000 given on Dec. 8th, 1897 to the Piedmont Bank here, R. R. King surety and one for $1,500 given to the same bank on November 26th, 1897, same surety. There was also a note for $1,000 given to the National bank here with J. W. Scott surety and one for $600 to same bank and same surety.

The whole amount of the liabilities is not accurately known as yet, but will be something over $20,000. The preferred indebtedness as seen above amounts to $12,600. The miscellaneous liabilities are therefore over $8,000. This is the statement as given by Mr. King to a Telegram reporter. Mr. King also says that the total amount of assets is about $29,000 if the property can be disposed of for any thing like its face value. He thinks that even allowing for the sacrifice usual in settlements by assignment the creditors should be paid in full from the assets in the hands of the company. This of course can only be determined accurately after further investigation.

Mr. King states that private arrangements for closing up the affairs of the company have been made by which settlement will not cost more than one-fourth the amount of the ordinary method.

As the factory was not running at present no one will be thrown out of employment by the failure.

The assignment was precipitated by the near maturity of the large notes mentioned above which, as stated in the deed of assignment, the company had not the cash to meet. The failure will not effect other business firms and there is no uneasiness felt as a consequence.

CHARLES L. ANDREWS ASSIGNS.

Charles L. Andrews also made an assignment last night to G. Will Armfield. The liabilities of Mr. Andrews are about $800 and the assets nearly the same if they realize well, if not they will probably fall under. Mr. Andrews preferred all home creditors. He gave up everything to his creditors, though he was entitled to retain property to the amount of $500. So soon as arrangements can be made the affairs of Mr. Andrews will be wound up.

IT IS A BEAUTY.

The Handsome New Hose Wagon has Arrived.

The Southside Hose company are the happiest lot of men in the city. There new hose wagon was unloaded this morning and it is a beauty. The sides of the body are ornamented with pretty monograms of the initial letters of the company's name. On each side of the elevated seat is a handsome nickel plated lamp and just below and behind the lamps are two tanks for a chemical fire extinguisher. These are also nickel plated.

The wagon is painted white with red, blue and gold trimmings. The rods and hand-holds are all nickel plated. The boys tell us they will carry about 600 feet of hose. This beautiful wagon will be run out on the streets in a day or two, and you can see how it looks.

An Elegant Hotel.

It is said that the new hotel, The Summit, at Carthage, is one of the handsomest in the State. The plastering and placing the mantles was done by McClamroch Bros., of this city, and they have done a splendid job. The parlor is finished, mantle and all, in white and gold.

The dining room is not the least attractive room of the house by any means. It is 32x32 feet and handsomely finished and furnished.

The building has 38 rooms, and is owned and conducted by John R. Shaw, formerly of Louisville, Omaha, St. Louis, but now of Carthage. This writer has long desired to see a movement in Carthage to make it a winter resort and we hope Mr. Shaw has made a long stride in that direction.

Possessed of many natural advantages, it is admirably adapted for a winter resort. Its water is pure, air invigorating, and the people as clever as can be found anywhere.

Springer, the Nebraskan last evening spoke in the open air to the largest crowd ever gathered in Muskogee to hear a political address. Mr. and Mrs. Bryan took breakfast at the Coates House and left later for Lincoln, Neb., where he will attend a dinner this evening, given in his honor by the Byran Traveling Men's Club.

WILL COTTON TAKE A RISE?

Marked Increase in its Export--President of Uruguay Will Declare Himself Dictator.

By Cable to THE TELEGRAM.

London, Jan. 5—Little doubt is entertained in financial circles here that the British government has agreed in theory to guarantee the Chinese loan of £16,000,000. There is good reason however to suppose that the exact terms have not yet been agreed upon.

FOREIGN DEMAND FOR COTTON.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

New York, Jan. 5. The increasing foreign demand for American grown cotton and the augmented shipments to England and Japan recently has caused southern growers to have more confidence in their staple. It is said today that the outlook for the new season is especially bright. Brokers and commissionmen of the New York cotton exchange regard the figures of increasing shipments as possibly pointing to a good era in cotton growing and that prosperity is bound to accrue to all cotton handlers, from producers to consumers.

A TEA POT TEMPEST.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

Washington, Jan. 5—An official dispatch to the State department says that President Jose Cuestras of Uruguay is about to declare himself dictator and that a revolution will follow The United States cruisers Cincinnati and Castine are at Montevideo to guard American interests.

DIRECTOR SMITH'S TRIP.

He Will Make a Voyage Among the West India Islands.

Mr. Jos. Smith, director of the bureau of American republics, is about to make a voyage through some of the West Indian islands, for the recuperation of his health. Mr. Smith is at present in Florida, where he was ordered by his physician during his convalescence from a long illness. Incidentally during his trip he will stop at Havana, but it is declared positively at the State Department that he is not charged with any mission by the United States government, nor is he expected to make any investigation or report touching Cuban affairs.

Joyful Laughter Radiant.

Col. Olds writes the Charlotte Observer:

John R. Smith, commissioner of agriculture, was in his seat today and Secretary Joyful Laughter Ramsey was positively radiant with happiness at the advent of his new chief. John R. said he did not know any news, but Dr. Ramsey said there was a marked renewal of interest in North Carolina properties, and that during the past fortnight inquiries have poured in regarding mining and timber lands; more in fact than at any time last year. There will probably be many farmers' institutes this year and one of the chief features of these will naturally be the talks on agriculture by the new commissioner.

Sent to an Orphan Asylum.

Some of the kind ladies of the town are arranging to send the children of Ryan to an orphan asylum. Today they solicited and received gifts of goods from which clothing will be made for them. The Cone Company gave them a hundred yards. The names of the other charitably inclined firms could not be learned.

A Remedy for Typhus and Other Fevers.

City of Mexico, Jan. 4.—A sensation has been caused in medical circles of Mexico by the discovery by Dr. Miller, an American resident of this city, of a vegetable preparation which has been proven an absolute cure for the worst cases of typhus, typhoid, and malarial fever. Dr. Miller obtained the remedy from a tribe of Indians in the State of Yucatan. There were sixty cases of typhoid fever among the employees of a hacienda owned by Dr. La Torre in the State of Queretaro. Dr. Miller was sent for and applied his remedy, with the result that every patient quickly recovered.

MANDAMUS GRANTED.

Treasurer Snuggs Ordered to Pay to the Attorneys $3,000.

Salisbury, Jan. 4—A telephone message received here tonight from Hon. J. S. Pemberton, of Albemarle, gives the information that a writ of mandamus was served on County Treasurer Snuggs today, commanding him to appear at Greensboro tomorrow and show cause why he should not pay over to Messrs. Schenck, Avery and Shepherd, the attorneys who represented the county commissioners in the Stanly bond litigation, the sum of $3,000 of the moneys in his hands which were collected for payment of interest on the bonds issued by Stanly county for the Yadkin railroad Co.

The railroad company had issued an order on the treasurer for the payment of this sum, which he declined to honor, and hence the mandamus proceedings.

Mr. D. Schenck, Jr., was in Albemarle yesterday and personally obtained the order from the county commissioners.

Hons. B. F. Long and S. J. Pemberton will represent the treasurer in the hearing at Greensboro tomorrow.

It is not learned what judge issued the writ, although it is supposed it was Justice R. M. Douglas, of the State Supreme Court.—Charlotte Observer.

The above is correct with the small exception that no suit has been brought by the attorneys. No mandamus has been issued and no application made for such an order. Nor has Mr. Pemberton been employed to represent the treasurer of Stanly county in this imaginary suit. Judge Shepherd is here today and he and Attorney Schenck both deny that any such suit has been brought. Treasurer Snuggs is here today but not to appear in the alleged suit.

REED AT GIRARD COLLEGE.

The Speaker Makes a Speech at the Semi-Centennial Reunion.

Philadelphia, Jan. 4.—The fiftieth anniversary of Girard College, founded and endowed by Stephen Girard for the care of "male white orphans," was celebrated today. The occasion was marked by the attendance of Speaker Thomas B. Reed and some of the Pennsylvania Congressmen. Speaker Reed was the guest of the alumni. Exercises were held during the afternoon and evening. In the evening Speaker Reed made an address to the alumni.

Girard College is in the built-up portion of the city, which was originally a country estate of forty-five acres puchased by Stephen Girard in 1831. The corner stone was laid on July 4, 1833. The capstone was placed in position August 4, 1846, and on January 1, 1848, the institution was opened.

The estate bequeathed by Girard to the founding of the college was $7,500,000, of which $2,000,000 was set apart for the buildings. The estate today amounts to $26,000,000. The college now has 1,536 pupils, and 6,000 have graduated since it was founded. The income of the estate in 1897 was $1,650,448.

A TRULY PENITENT THIEF.

A. P. Revis Asks the Judge to Impose Heavy Sentence.

San Bernardino, Cal., Jan. 4—A. P. Revis, a member of the Salvation Army in Redlands, who was arrested for wholesale thievery, appeared before the superior court yesterday with a Bible in one hand and a tabulated statement of his thefts, committed since 1888, in the other. He pleaded guilty to the crime charged and also insisted that punishment be administered for each theft committed as per schedule, which appeared by the score.

In that way only, he said, he could atone to a just God. The defendant presented so novel a case, without any attorney to advise him, that the court refused to pass sentence without further consideration, and continued the time for sentence two days.

Court Proceedings.

The case of Hendren vs. Alspaugh was decided in favor of the plaintiff. The case was appealed.

Today the court has been occupied with the case of Brooks, receiver of Bain Building Company vs. St. Andrews P. E. church. Robt. D. Douglas and L. M. Scott appear for the plaintiff and Bynum, Bynum & Taylor for the defendant. The suit originated over an alleged breach of contract.

A NEW YEAR'S RESOLUTION.

Raleigh, N. C., Jan. 3.—The executive committee of North Carolina Farmers' State Alliance adopts the following resolution:

Resolved, That we will make renewed efforts to build up and extend the usefulness of the Alliance as a great brotherhood; discouraging as much as possible all partisan prejudice and inviting all persons who are entitled to membership to join us in our efforts to build up the farmers' organization, such as will be a power for good to our common country.

That is a resolution with the right ring to it. If the Farmers' Alliance had stuck to first ideals—the fostering of a spirit of industrial progress and the promotion of co-operation among agriculturists, it could in this time have accomplished untold good for farmers. It would have had the heartiest good will of all those whose good will is worth the seeking. But it went out of farming into politics and in two years time was dead as an organization.

If the reorganized and rejuvenated Alliance devotes itself to the introduction of improved methods, of new ideas, it has a bright future. If it is to branch off into populism anew; if it is to father and foster class hate, ignorance, blind tenacity to untenable theories and all the crop of despicable things that have sprung from its decaying carcass in the past, then better let reorganization alone. We have had enough and more than enough of the latter.

North Carolina is the worse today for the fact that the Farmers' Alliance has ever existed. Not that the Farmers' Alliance is a bad thing, but because it has been perverted to the base ends of petty partisans, loud-mouthed demagogues. It has gone the way predicted for it when it first began to meddle in politics. The probability is strong that if reorganized it will repeat this piece of recent history.

Pension commissioner Evans does some talking about pension reform but in the end it will come to nothing. The pension swindle, for it is nothing less, is too firmly planted, has too many friends in high places and too many voters to be easily modified. Thus far neither political party has had the courage to oppose it. Opposition in any northern State would mean ovewhelming defeat, temporarily at least, for candidate or party. The American people must be given time to fully learn its enormities before anything in the way of retrenchment can be expected. When the American people shall have awakened to the true inwardness of it they will right matters and that speedily.

His Gubernatorial Nibs is going to Washington to urge the appointment of Cook to the attorneyship of the eastern district of this State. In the event of a rebuff Congress will doubtless be asked for a special appropriation to replace the White House furniture demolished.

The assurances of the press that Mayor Van Wyck's inaugural was a masterpiece is only calculated to instigate a comparison between the political promises and performances of his predecessors.

It would be a wise plan for the drummer who impersonated Bryan in Texas and claimed conversion to the gold standard to don a bullet proof coat before toying with the financial views of the free silver ranchmen afresh.

The Christmas number of the Winston Tobacco Journal came late to us but we found in it no pleasure the less for that. It is easily the handsomest publication we have seen in the State.

The indications are that the London Times will hereafter not be forced to cross the Atlantic in order to find people disposed to call the old bluff about Britania ruling the wave.

A deal of good printers' ink and A1 political prophecy and conjecture might be saved these days by allowing Judge Dick to do the talking at his interviews.

The opposition of pensioners to the publication of the pension rolls is a brand new and beautiful instance of the modesty that is inseparable from bravery.

Asheville may be unfortunate in the banking line, but she is evidently a cackling success at a poultry show.

Mr. Hanna does not seem quite so facile in the making of senators as in the creation of presidents.

STRAWBERRIES FROZEN.

The Ill Luck of Florida Truck Growers.

Jacksonville, Fla., Jan. 4—The cold weather of January 1 and 2, did considerable temporary damage to vegetables, but none of a permanent character. Orange trees will in some cases lose their foliage and where they were in exposed places in the northern border of the orange belt, will lose a part of their tender growth. Owing to the fact, however, that the sap was down, the trees themselves were able to resist unscathed even lower temperature. Reports from the pineapple belt of the coast indicate that the damage to pineapples was trifling.

The fall crop of tobacco in all parts of the State was injured badly. Blooms on strawberries were killed. Early strawberries in the northern section were frozen on the vines and plants themselves set back fully six weeks.

The tenderest garden crops in all sections as far south as Tampa where lacking protection by forests, streams or lakes, were badly injured, but exposed gardens did not represent more than half the area in truck, growers having learned by experience the wisdom of selecting well protected spots.

FORAKER KEEPS MUM.

His Boy Sick at Home and He Refuses to Talk Politics.

Cincinnati, O., Jan. 4—Senator Foraker was informed by wire of the turn of events in Columbus today.

"Does this portend to the defeat of Mark Hanna?" he was asked.

"Well, I would not like to say," he replied.

"Am I going to Columbus? Not at all. Why should I?"

That was Foraker's response to an inquiry earlier in the day. Mark Hanna's friends in Cincinnati have been urging Foraker to go to help Hanna.

"I have a very sick boy at home," said the senator. "Little Arthur has scarlet fever and I am greatly worried about him. Unless I should see some reasons for changing my plans, I shall go to Washington tonight. I don't know anything about the senatorial contest. I have read Governor Bushnell's discussion of that subject. I do not care to say anything on the question."

Combining Against England.

London, Jan. 4—The Washington correspondent of the Daily Chronicle cables that he learns from the highest diplomatic authority that there is a complete understanding between Russia and France in regard to the East to the extent of their co-operating on sea and land in the event of hostilities.

An effort has been made to induce Germany to act in concert with them, but hitherto without success. The movement is directed against England.

Dr. Dabney Dead.

Knoxville, Tenn., Jan. 4.—Dr. Robert L. Dabney, one of the most prominent educators of the South, died at his home here today. Dr. Chas. W. Dabney, president of the University of Tennessee, and Assistant Secretary of Agriculture under President Cleveland, is his son.

THE KITTEN AND THE BEAR.

How Puss Intimidated Bruin Up a Tree and Kept Him There.

Chris Burns, the veteran first sergeant of Troop D, had a kitten which, during the summer camping of the troop at the Lower Geyser basin, made her home within the sergeant's tent. Here, curled up on a pair of army blankets, she defied the world in general and dogs in particular. When the latter approached, she would elevate every bristle on her brave little back, her eyes would glow like live coals, and her tail would swell up threateningly. If dogs approached too near, she would hiss and exhibit the usual signs of hostility until the intruders had vanished from her neighborhood.

One day, when the camp was bathed in sunshine and every soldier in camp felt lazy, an inquisitive black bear came down the mountain side and, whether because he was in search of adventure or because attracted by a savory smell from the cook's fire, began to walk about among the white tents of the cavalry command.

Suddenly the kitten caught sight of him. Dogs by the score she had seen, but this particular "dog" was the largest and the hairiest dog she had ever seen. But she did not hesitate. It was enough for her that an enemy had invaded her special domain. Hissing forth her spite, while her little body quivered with rage, she darted forth at the bear. The onslaught was sudden, and one glance was enough for bruin. With a snort of fear, bruin made for the nearest tree, a short distance away, and did not pause until he was safely perched among the upper branches. Meanwhile the kitten stalked proudly about on the ground beneath, keeping close guard over her huge captive, her back still curved into a bow and her hair still bristling with righteous indignation, while her tail would now and then give a significant little wave, as if to say, "That's the way I settle impertinent bears."

The soldiers, who meanwhile had poured forth from their tents, could scarcely believe their eyes; that there was the bear in the tree and the kitten below, and there were those who had seen the affair from beginning to end.

And perhaps the strangest part of it all was that the bear would not stir from his safe position in the branches until the kitten had been persuaded to leave her huge enemy a clear means of retreat. Then he slid shamefacedly down from his perch and ambled hastily off toward the mountain.—Lieutenant Charles D. Rhodes, U. S. A., in St. Nicholas.

NAMES OF PEARLS.

About Five Thousand Small Ones Can Be Bought For Nine Dollars.

Pearls are named according to their size. The very large are called paragon pearls; when the size of a cherry, cherry pearls; medium are called pigeon pearls; smallest, dust pearls. The oval and long are termed pear pearls, while badly formed specimens are known as baroques. The value of pearls varies, of course, with the quality and general colors, but the piece, seed and dust pearls always have a market price.

The cherry and paragon are sold on an entirely different basis. If many fine ones are on the market at a time, they may be had at reasonable rates. Some years they bring almost any price. The last two years especially, the dealers say, there has been a great scarcity of fine pearls, although there is no falling off in the supply of the small stuff.

When a pearl exceeds one carat in weight, it is sold separately. Under that weight they are sold in parcels and become less valuable as they become smaller. The smallest dust pearls collected average about 5,000 to the troy ounce and are rated at about $3 per ounce. If, on the contrary, one paragon weighing an ounce (or 150 carats) was on sale, it would bring any amount from $30,000 to $200,000, according to quality.—Philadelphia Times.

How to Take Moonlight Photographs.

Moonlight effects in photographs have long been admired by the uninitiated and fully appreciated by both amateur and professional photographers for their beauty, and many plates, too, have been spoiled by snap shotters who have accepted moonlight as the real illuminator of these views and accordingly focused directly on this beautiful orb of night. Moonlights with the moon herself in evidence are really sun photographs—that is, pictures taken with a rapid exposure, the camera pointed toward the sun generally in the late afternoon or early morning and with clouds between the lens and the direct rays.

Many charming so called night pictures are taken by making two exposures, a short one in the rapidly diminishing afternoon sunlight, to get an impression of buildings and other dark objects and another longer one after dark to print in the gas and electric lights that line the long street or mark out the roads and winding pathways of a city park.—James B. Carrington in Scribner's.

An Old Catechism.

At a meeting of the Worcester Antiquarian society Senator Hoar said that when he was a boy in Worcester a catechism was in use of which the following is a sample:

Where is hell?
Under the earth—a place of darkness.
Who live in hell?
The devil, his angels and bad men.
What do they do in hell?
They curse God and sin continually.
Do you deserve to go to hell?
I do.

For any one to assert that petroleum oil possesses no therapeutic power is simply to make an assertion of ignorance, for petroleum, or rock oil, as it is sometimes called, is, it is well known to those who have paid any attention to the subject, used with the most beneficial results in all chronic bronchial and pulmonary disorders.

BIG FIRE AT STOCKTON, CAL.

Over 300,000 Bushels of Wheat Destroyed by the Flames.

Stockton, Jan. 4.—Warehouses 5 and 6 of the Farmers' Union Milling company were destroyed by fire early today.

The warehouses were filled with grain, for both the Union and its clients have been among those who were waiting for the price of wheat to advance. The lowest estimate of the amount of wheat destroyed is 300,000 bushels.

There was considerable barley and rye. Much of the grain was the property of the Union, but by far the largest proportion was held in storage by farmers.

The loss is placed at more than $500,000. The loss on the warehouses will be heavy, though both of the buildings and grain were insured for a reasonably large share of their real value.

The fire started in the machinery of a grader and cleaner.

It was with much difficulty that the Navigation and Improvement Company's warehouse and the Crown Mills warehouse, adjoining the burned building were saved by the firemen.

The $100 Counterfeit.

Washington, Jan. 4.—United States Treasurer Roberts today sent the following telegram to all Assistant Treasurers:

"Discovery of dangerous counterfeits compels the retirement of all $100 silver certificates. Forward all such notes to this office for destruction. Be cautious in receiving denominations of the kind mentioned."

Another of these counterfeits was today discovered in a package received from Chicago. So far as known, the only cities in which they have appeared are Chicago, St. Louis and Philadelphia.

Flooded With Counterfeit Money.

City of Mexico, Jan. 4—Although the Government secret agents have captured several coin counterfeiting plants in this city within the past few weeks, the flood of spurious dollars continues to pour into the hands of merchants, and it is believed the entire country is being worked by a gang. It is thought that their headquarters is Pachuca. It is estimated that not less than $1,000,000 of counterfeit silver is now in circulation in Mexico. The coins are made from 90 per cent. silver and 10 per cent. alloy of copper and can be detected only by experts.

Growing Honorable.

Washington, Jan. 4.—Since the agitation concerning the publication of the list of pensioners has commenced, Commissioner Evans has received several letters from pensioners requesting a cancellation of their pensions. One pensioner in Michigan enclosed his certificates and stated his desire to have the same recalled, as he was not entitled to government bounty. He adds that he will endeavor to return all the money drawn since 1895, when the pension was granted.

Ruling Prices.

Remember that to get the only stop in North Carolina by Joe Jefferson's splendid company, "Pudd'nhead Wilson," Manager Blackburn was compelled to put his best reserved seats at $1.00; balance at 75c, while the general admission is only 50c, and children 25c. If our people want to see good attractions come to Greensboro, it is hoped that they will turn out to see this company that has favored us by stopping here tomorrow night. The best seats are going fast. Don't wait for the last moment.

Sudden Death.

Mrs. John Clapp, residing near Jamestown, dropped dead last night. The cause is supposed to have been heart disease, as she was in usual health. The sudden taking off is a severe shock to her relatives and friends.

Mrs. Clapp was a daughter of B. B. Donnell, and was raised near Alamance church, this county.

Had His Arm Broken.

Last night R. G. Campbell, Supt. of Proximity Mills, had the misfortune to break his arm at the wrist. AGED CITIZEN DEAD.

Mr. John Sampson Passes Away in His Ninetieth Year.

Mr. John Sampson, an aged and highly respected citizen of Greensboro, died last evening at 5:10 at his home on Asheboro street. He was in his 90th year and a general break down was the cause of his demise.

He leaves a wife two or three years his junior, four daughters and one son. Two of his daughters are Misses Hattie and Ada, who lived with their parents. The other two are Mrs. Libby Hall, of this city and Mrs. Mary Newell. The son is Alfred Sampson, who lives in the country.

He was born in Wilkshire, England, July 10th 1808. He entered upon his 90th year six months ago. He came to America in 1832. He lived in Pennsylvania till 1870 then moved with his family to this county. He has been living in Greensboro about 18 years.

He made a profession of his faith in Christ in 1865 and united with the First Presbyterian church at Erie, Penn.

He was one of the original members of Westminster church, a member at its organization. The funeral was conducted today at one o'clock at his residence on Asheboro St. by his pastor, Rev. S. O. Hall, assisted by Rev. L. Johnson. The interment took place at Guilford college.

NOTE THE COMPARISON.

The Cost of the Two Systems and the Result.

A number of prisoners sentenced to the county roads were taken out to the camp, near Alamance church, at noon today, where they will help improve the roads of Guilford.

And just here we call the attention of the public to a comparison. That working these men on the public roads is the best thing that can be done, and aside from the benefit the public derive from the improved roads, it is cheaper than to let them languish in jail, as is shown conclusively by the following information which has been given us:

It costs between $4.75 and $5 a month per man to clothe, feed, guard and give medical attention to the road force.

In the jail the cost is $7.50 a month per man for food alone, and there is the additional expense of two guards at a salary of $22.50 a month each. This statement places the system of working convicts on the public roads in an entirely different light from that in which it has been looked upon by the general public and shows the wisdom and advantage of the system over that of wasting valuable labor by letting these able bodied men fatten in idleness at the people's expense.

Pudd'nhead Wilson.

There is coming to this city next Thursday an attraction that will surely hold the rapt attention of our theatre goers both from a literary and a dramatic standpoint. The play in question is Pudd'nhead Wilson. Frank Mayo's dramatization of Mark Twains novel of that name and its enactment is in the hands of Theodore Hamilton, Joseph Jefferson, jr., (son of the dash of the American stage) and other artists of equal note. The story of the piece, as all who have read Twains work know, is laid in a sleepy, drowsy corner of Missouri where ignorance is bliss and a self satisfied air with everything in general reigns. The theme hinges upon the substitution of a one-thirty-second part negro child for a white boy, but through the preservation of the thumb marks of both children by a quaint kind hearted Pudd'n head lawyer.

The wrongs of the concession are eventually righted and the white boy now at man's estate comes to his inheritance. This play affords considerable character studies in it shows to the very life depictations of scenes that have actually happened.

Ground His Fingers.

Jessie Buck who works in the job office of Joseph J. Stone, yesterday afternoon got his fingers fast in a Gordon job press. The index and middle fingers of his right hand were badly lacerated and cut though the bones were not broken. He went to the Astley-Cooper hospital where his wounds were dressed. This is the second time that Mr. Buck has given the job press a taste of his fingers. The press enjoyed it more than Mr. Buck.
